Introduction

Cavan Artists Exchange is a series of three sessions designed as a regular meet up for Cavan Artists to show and share their work in a relaxed way.

The sessions are created to include a balance of invited Artists talks and workshops from a range of artforms along with opportunities for Cavan Artists to present their work and ideas to each other.

The series has been designed in response to feedback from Cavan Artists during the Hello Sessions in February 2015 (see sample comments over).

The sessions are held approximately every three weeks between mid May and the end of June 2015.

When : Dates & Times

The Cavan Artists Exchange sessions will take place on:

Tues 19 May Session # 1 Town Hall, Cavan Town

Tues 16 June Session # 2 Library, Cavan Town

Tues 30 June Session # 3 Town Hall, Cavan Town* – note change of venue

Time: 17:45 – 20:30

Who's Welcome to Attend?

Artists from all artforms are welcome to attend the Artists Exchange sessions, with a maximum of approximately 25 people per venue per session.

The Artists Exchange sessions may be of interest to artists in all stages of their art practice, recent graduates, mid-career, etc. Please feel free to pass this information on to other artists who you think may be interesting in coming along.

Accessibility Information: Some of the sessions will take place upstairs. If you require additional access supports please let us know in advance.

Cost

The cost to attend all three sessions is €20 or €7 for individual sessions.

This can be paid on the first night. Light snacks and refreshments will be available.

How to Book

Artists and practitioners can register to attend by emailing JGorman@cavancoco.ie

Please include your full contact details (name, address, mobile, email); and your artform area.

Artists need to register no later than 12:00 on the Friday before each session* - note extended.

About the Speakers

Here is some background information on the invited speakers and what they may be able to cover in their talks.

If possible please keep in mind that the programme details above are outlines at this stage; the visiting Artists may vary their content on the night based on the presentation material they select or in response to Qs from Cavan Artists who attend.

Michael Fortune's contemporary practice works in a range of areas including Visual Art, Traditional Arts & Music and Public Commissions. Michael will talk about the realities of working from his studio in rural Co. Wexford. He will aim to discuss creative ways to develop your practice including online and artist-led initiatives. Michael's talk is titled 'The King of Intangible Culture'.

Katherine Atkinson is a musician and also works in the area of Project Support and Professional Development with Create, the national development agency for collaborative arts. Katherine will explore public engagement in contemporary art using examples from the Create Artist in the Community Scheme (AIC) including artists project which collaborate with the unemployed, examine cultural diversity, and work with parents and kids, young people and teenagers.

Justine Foster works as the Education and Community Coordinator at Uillinn: West Cork Arts Centre where she develops projects with a range of communities of interest including parents, children, young people and older people, as well as exploring cultural diversity and Arts + Health practice.

Val Ballance is the Head of Venues and Touring at the Arts Council of Ireland. Val will focus on touring opportunities in all artforms, building an audience, cross-border touring opportunities and networks for presenting projects.

FAQ

Frequently Asked Questions

What is PechaKucha?

PechaKucha Nights are informal and fun gatherings where creative people get together in a public place and share their ideas, works and thoughts in a relaxed way. Most people use PechaKucha Night to present their latest creative projects or work. Good PechaKucha presentations are the ones that uncover the unexpected -- unexpected talent, unexpected ideas. Some PechaKuchas tell great stories about a project or an experience. Some are incredibly personal, some are incredibly funny, but all are very different – and FAST!

The fee of €20 for all three sessions, what does this cover?

The fee goes towards drinks, snacks and Visiting Artists travel expenses.

What if my practice needs less professional development and more help with artists events, is it worth going along to these sessions?

Yes, we think so. It will be a chance to meet other Cavan Artists and Practitioners, present your work at PechaKucha or promote an event in the Elevator Pitch timeslot. The speakers have been chosen to reflect the needs and feedback from the Cavan Artists who took part in the Hello Sessions with the curators. There is also an opportunity to run a creative workshop.

What if I can't attend the sessions, is there a way that I can access information?

The curators have invited a writer to collaboratively document the sessions, and any links, opportunities and deadlines mentioned will be made available to artists on the Arts Office and Curators mailing list. Please email cavancurator@gmail.com to join the mailing list.

Will the sessions be suitable for people working in any artform?

The sessions have been programmed to reflect the ideas and interests presented to the curators in the Hello Sessions. The speakers work in different artforms and/or contexts, so it is hoped that their information will be useful to artists regardless of artform. The call for Cavan Artists to present a Creative Workshop will also be an opportunity for Cavan artists to address particular areas of interest.
